GRACE

Each of the ten thrusters contain individual actuators that instantaneously adjust the ship's balance to compensate for background gravitational flux, providing the ultimately smooth ride with pinpoint control.

CONNECTION

Never feel disconnected with the 890's robust communication array from Pythia. You will enjoy uninterrupted productivity with Octa-key security and lossless intra-system data transfer. The life you've left can always be a comm away.

PROTECTION

The triple-layered graphene enameled hull and Kruger Armaments K-608 shield work together to ensure that your craft not only can withstand the vigors of galactic travel, but does so looking as good as the day you bought it.

CAPTAIN'S BRIDGE

One of the best parts of being the captain is that you're always privy to the best views. Bask in the ever-changing cosmic vista with the wrap-around bridge rotunda, offering unparalleled visibility for a vantage point that's simply unmatched.

Built for maximum comfort, the bridge offers three exquisitely crafted operator seats from Atlas, featuring ORIGIN's award-winning suspensor technology that cradles you for the smoothest flight of your life. Whether you're at the helm or just enjoying the ride, the 890 Jump proves that the journey is just as important as the destination.
